Story Web

The diagram is a story web. At the top center is a rectangular box containing the text "Story Title" and "Author" on two separate lines. Below this central box is a vertical line that connects to a horizontal line. From the ends of this horizontal line, two diagonal lines extend outwards to the top corners of a large rectangular box labeled "Events" at the bottom center. From the top corners of the "Events" box, two diagonal lines extend outwards to the top corners of a large rectangular box labeled "Solution" at the bottom right. From the top corners of the "Solution" box, two diagonal lines extend outwards to the top corners of a large rectangular box labeled "Setting" at the top right. From the top corners of the "Setting" box, two diagonal lines extend outwards to the top corners of a large rectangular box labeled "Characters" at the top left. From the top corners of the "Characters" box, two diagonal lines extend outwards to the top corners of a large rectangular box labeled "Problem" at the bottom left. The entire structure is symmetrical and resembles a spiderweb.
