

7th and 8th Grade Summer Reading Graphic Organizer

(Use another sheet of paper if necessary.)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Characters:
Protagonist is the main character (hero)

Antagonist: character opposing the protagonist

Setting:
Time and place of the story

Theme:
The author's message and the deeper meaning if the story.

Point of View:
Who is telling the story and whose thoughts do we know?

Exposition: the beginning of the story where we find out basic information about characters, setting, and plot.

Rising Action: the events in the story that increase action and build suspense before reaching the climax.

Plot: the plan and sequence of a events in a story.

Falling Action: any events that follow the climax and deal with the resolution of the conflict.

Title of novel: _____

Author: _____

Characters – Name and description

Protagonist:

Antagonist:

Setting – List changes if they occur

Challenges & Complications

Conflict

Climax – What is the turning point?

Resolution

Theme

Point of View

Pretend you are a book reviewer for a popular new blog online. Summarize the key parts of the story so that others will be excited to read the book, too. Include who you think would like this book. Be careful...don't give away the ending!!
